3 2 2

When considering location and country aesthetic, this property will impress and invigorate.

Whilst the house has easy access to the conveniences of town like FoodWorks, the medical centre, the chemist, restaurants, cafes, schools, parks, and the train station, sitting in the backyard will transport you and give you that country escape you crave for.

Surrounded by pine trees, setting up your own camp spot or even enjoying a barbeque with friends and family in the backyard is such a delight. A boundless imagination can surely make the backyard your favourite place in the world.

Inside, another delight, as high ceilings and an open plan kitchen overlooking the alfresco and dining area will make you feel even more at home. Walking through the house, a
